

Remote Support Disclosure

First Bankers Trust Company will provide limited support to our customers regarding problems with online banking. Our support personnel can request remote access to your computer and check basic settings such as browser settings, deleting cookies, off-line content and temporary internet files, pop-up blocker settings and restoring default internet option settings. If the problem requires more attention, we suggest you contact a third party for more assistance concerning your computer and/or internet connection.